

The YouthBuild Program

YouthBuild provides the resources to help transform low-income youth into leaders of their communities. Within the Los Angeles area there are 21 programs that serve approximately 800 young people every year.

YouthBuild has helped hundreds of young people over the last 38 years across the nation and throughout the world. Regardless of the location, all programs strive to fulfill the YouthBuild model based on five core program components.

YouthBuild Program Components:

- ⇒ Leadership Development
- ⇒ Community Service/Organizing
- ⇒ Counseling and Support Services
- ⇒ Construction Training
- ⇒ Education

YouthBuild

YouthBuild programs provide pathways to unleash the positive energy of low-income young people to build their communities and their lives, breaking the cycle of poverty with a commitment to work, education, family, and community.

LARYBC

The Los Angeles Region YouthBuild Collaborative is a network of YouthBuild programs in Southern California committed to unleashing the intelligence and positive energy of low-income youth to build their communities and their lives.

Mission:

Our mission is to strengthen and support the development and resourcing of YouthBuild programs in the furtherance of the YouthBuild movement to benefit our under-resourced communities.

Vision:

All YouthBuild programs are successful, high quality and sustainable for equitable and resourced communities.

Goals:

- ⇒ Support development of area YouthBuilds
- ⇒ Create a model for regional collaboration
- ⇒ Provide peer support & learning
- ⇒ Strengthen the YouthBuild Brand
- ⇒ Strategic regional planning
